— PRAISING —

*Responsive Reading		Psalm 30
L: Lord, I will give you honor. You brought me out of deep trouble. You didn't give my enemies the joy of seeing me die.
C: Lord my God, I called out to you for help. And you healed me.
L: Lord, you brought me up from the place of the dead. You kept me from going down into the pit.
C: Sing the praises of the Lord, you who are faithful to him. Praise him, because his name is holy.
L: His anger lasts for only a moment. But his favor lasts for a person's whole life. Weeping can stay for the night. But joy comes in the morning.
C: When I felt safe, I said, “I will always be secure.”
L: Lord, when you gave me your help, you made Mount Zion stand firm. But when you took away your help, I was terrified.
C: Lord, I called out to you. I cried to you for mercy.
L: I said, “What good will come if I become silent in death? What good will come if I go down into the grave? Can the dust of my dead body praise you? Can it tell how faithful you are?”
C: Lord, hear me. Have mercy on me. Lord, help me.”

L: You turned my loud crying into dancing. You removed my clothes of sadness and dressed me with joy.

All: So my heart will sing your praises. I can't keep silent. Lord, my God, I will praise you forever.

Some people make New Year’s resolutions. Others give up things for Lent. I dedicate myself during the 50 days of Eastertide, between Easter and Pentecost, to reflecting on resurrection. My 50 words for each of the 50 days of Eastertide reflecting on resurrections great and small may be read at <http://fmcbluffton.org/bulletins/blog/pastors-blog/>

April is project month for Mennonite Women. Comforter set-up will begin today at 2 p.m. in the fellowship hall, and continue on Monday if necessary. Please consider helping with setting up the frames. Comforters will be ready for knotting Monday, April 11, at 7 p.m. Mary Amstutz’s devotional will focus on the theme, “For Creative Success, the Most Important Audience is the Audience of One.” Louise Matthews and Julie Mackey will provide refreshments. Knotting will continue Tuesday, April 12, from 9 a.m.-noon, followed by lunch together at noon, for which all knotters are encouraged to stay. If able, please bring a salad or dessert to share. Sandwiches and beverages will be provided.

Lights are often left on around the church, especially after worship. The March electric bill First Mennonite Church paid was over $600. The Trustees are asking each member of the congregation to take responsibility for seeing that lights are turned off. We have a number of motion switches in high traffic areas that turn off after a set period of time but manual switches must be turned off by the last person leaving the room. Your help is appreciated.
-- Trustees

Church College Relations Day is next Sunday, April 17. Perry Bush will preach. You are invited to a light lunch in fellowship Hall (Mustard Seed sandwiches/salads) and brief program following the worship service. We will once again provide $1,000 scholarships to the 8-9 First Mennonite Church students attending Mennonite colleges and universities this coming school year. A brochure on our scholarship program is in your mailbox today.
