Responsive Reading Psalm 42

L: A deer longs for streams of water. God, I long for you in the same way.

C: I am thirsty for God. I am thirsty for the living God. When can I go and meet with him?

L: My tears have been my food day and night. All day long people say to me, “Where is your God?”

C: When I remember what has happened, I tell God all my troubles. I remember How I used to walk to the house of God. The Mighty One guarded my steps. We shouted with joy and praised God as we went along with the joyful crowd.

L: My spirit, why are you so sad? Why are you so upset deep down inside me? Put your hope in God. Once again I will have reason to praise him. He is my Savior and my God.

C: My spirit is very sad deep down inside me. So I will remember you here where the Jordan River begins. I will remember you here on the Hermon Mountains Mountains and on Mount Mizar.

L: You have sent wave upon wave of trouble over me. It roars down on me like a waterfall. All your waves and breakers have rolled over me.

All: During the day the Lord sends his love to me. During the night I sing about him. I say a prayer to the God who gives me life.

artwork highlights portraits of LGBTQ people within the Mennonite Church, including our congregation, affirming that they are not strangers but belong in our community. First Mennonite will host the art display through the month of July and we will close with a Blau Rock Cafe July 24 from 4-7 p.m. The theme of the café is “Strangers no More,” although not everything must connect to the theme. Spoken word, skits, magic, music and more are welcome. Contact wendy@mennofolk.org if you would like to perform.

Kallen Terry will be spending the summer in Bluffton and is looking for ways to make extra money. She is available to dog walk, house and pet sit, as well as perform related tasks. If you are interested, please contact her at 419-302-7910.

GRATITUDE AND PRAYERS

Happy birthday to Marilyn Diller, 85, June 21; Elnore Yost, 89, June 23.

Thank you friends at FMC for helping with Steve’s memorial service...to the staff, those who prepared the delicious meal, took care of the sound system and cleaned up. We are grateful to the church for journeying with us the past four years as Steve was on the transplant list. We grieve our loss of Steve – husband, father, grandfather. A memory: Steve and I were reflecting this past year about our time in Chicago while Steve was attending Bethany Seminary from 1990 to 1994. I worked three out of four weekends and Steve took our young sons to Oak Park Mennonite Church in the city. He told me that their pew was a busy place during worship! May the God of compassion and grace be with us all.
-- With love, Janet Yoder and family

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Today we welcome Karla Minter to the pulpit, as well as leading one of the adult Sunday school options. She is a church relations associate for Mennonite Mission Network. Karla graduated from Anabaptist Mennonite Biblical Seminary in 2012, after deciding to pursue a call she felt toward Christian formation. Previously, she worked in public health nutrition, specializing in maternal and child health. She received a master's degree in public health from University of North Carolina and received her bachelor's degree in foods and nutrition from Goshen (Ind.) College. Karla and her husband, Bill, live in New Paris, Ind. She worships with Open Table Mennonite Fellowship, an emerging house church in Goshen.

Karla will be telling the story of Jesus appearing to two disciples as they walk to Emmaus, Luke 24:13-35. She suggests you consider these questions for reflection:

- Hear the word that is addressed to you; hear the word, phrase, or image that captures your attention.
- How does the passage seem to touch your life?
- What invitation does the passage offer you? What direction for the next few days?
- Rest in God's presence. Wait silently. Thank God for being with you Menno-Life schedule: The deadline to submit items for publication in the July Menno-Life is Friday, June 24.

Getting Started

Pastor Wanda and Pastor George are both very glad to be partnering together with the people of First Mennonite in the ministry in which you have been engaged over the years. While Pastor Wanda and Pastor George will work collaboratively together across shared areas of ministry we have together begun identifying and clarifying some of each one's particular responsibilities for various aspects of our work. As we begin working to do this, we do want to helpfully inform the fellowship as we have more "definition."

One area for which Pastor George will have primary responsibility will be in the areas of Crisis Care and Funerals. Pastor George will serve as first contact person for calls or contacts around these areas of concern or need. Pastor George has considerable experience in these areas of congregational life, and knowing well the importance of finding support when such concerns arise, finds these to be satisfying arenas of ministry to use his gifts among God's people.

Please call on us as you have need or questions: Office (419) 358-5766

May God bless and lead as we join in this partnership of being God's People together.
