Welcome, Announcements, Centering

Epiphany Litany

One: We celebrate as we reflect in amazement at what you have done. You muted the flames of our fears with hope.

Many: Glory to God in the highest! You amaze us!

One: You resurrected the dry bones of our spirits with peace.
 You quenched our thirsty souls with living water of joy.

Many: Glory to God in the highest! You amaze us!

One: You came to be among us, to show us the way in love.
 You have called us to follow you and walk the path of mercy and grace.

Many: Glory to God in the highest! You amaze us!

All: Lead us forward so that we too may carry your Christ-light into the world!

Prelude All Glory Be to God on High J.G. Walther

Invocation

*Opening Hymn As with Gladness VT 277

*Responsive Reading - Based on John 1:35-51

One: The invitation has been spoken: "Come and see." The door to a stable stands open. The way is before us.

Many: We heard the call. Now we step forward in wonder; ready to follow, open to the unexpected.

One: "You will see greater things than these," Jesus says.

Many: We stand in amazement, waiting to be changed.

One: Come, let us worship the One who calls us by name, who sees us as we are and leads us into new life.

All: We come, ready to follow, ready to see, ready to be amazed!

- VT: Voices Together (Purple Bound Book)

Parents of young children: God put the wiggle in children, so no need to suppress those wiggles.

Sitting closer to the front makes it easier for your little ones to engage.

Also, children learn their behavior by mimicking you. Sing the hymns, pray, and voice the responses.

Feel free to leave the sanctuary with your child, but you're welcome to come back.

As Jesus said, "Let the children come to me."
